

Misconceptions about Tax Debt and Liens

- It is not possible to get rid of Tax Debt false
- Don't worry about Tax Debt until there is a lien on your home false
- Once a lien registered on your home there is nothing you can do false
- It is not possible to obtain a mortgage when a Tax lien has been filled false

What most people are told once a lien has been filed

- CRA will tell you that you must pay in full to get rid of the lien
- Most Real Estate lawyers will tell you there is nothing that can be done
- Trustees in Bankruptcy will often tell you to walk away from your home because Bankruptcy won't get rid of the lien
- Banks and financial institutions won't offer anything other than loans or mortgages and only if you have enough equity to pay Tax Debt in full

The truth is that there are several options for dealing with Tax Debt regardless of what stage you are at.

Regardless of whether you're a homeowner and or a business owner.

That's why Tax Lawyers, Mortgage Brokers and many other professionals refer their clients to us.

No one is more effective for eliminating debt and protecting assets!

“Our results are Guaranteed”

Others advertise a Fresh Start, we actually provide it!

